COMMUNISTS IN GERMANY PLOT

Seized Documents Disclose Plans Are Projected for Organized Murder.

NEW TACTICS ARE ADOPTED

Agitators Are Fattening on Proletarian Funds, Some of Which Emanate Directly From Bolshevik Russia—Plots Disclosed.

Berlin.—Communists of a dangerous type are afoot in Germany. Their plots for the winter are coming to light. These range from mild demonstrations to organized murder. And, while leaders are innocently declaring that the intentions of both independent socialists and communists are peaceful, the government is constantly rounding up documents proving that at least among certain groups of communists there exist plans of the bloodiest nature.

Government disclosures leave little room for doubt that some of the wilder spirits among the Spartacists proposed to form a murderband that would do away with political opponents.

Dire Work Projected.

For instance, Munich newspapers, Prussian Minister-President Hirsch and the military are authority for revelations in the closing days of September, showing that, among other things, the Spartacists planned the following:

(a) To do away with a large number of officers and soldiers in Munich, slaying them as they slept; (b) that a group of reds from Munich proposed to blacklist a number of prominent officials, draw lots, and then "put away" the condemned; (c) that, particularly in Munich, plans were afoot for creation of red "shock troops," to use against the regular military—particularly against monarchist officers; (d) that, in cases of demonstrations, women and children were to be put in the fore ranks to shield the cowards behind from the machine guns of the government troops; (e) that the communist government should ally itself with the anarchist-syndicalist groups.

All evidence at hand in the last few weeks has shown quite conclusively that the Spartacists and the independents were endeavoring to prove conclusively to Germany and to the world that they had moderated. Certainly, in general, they adopted a new course of tactics from that pursued last winter and spring, when rioting and bloodshed were the order of the day. Their new course appeared to consist in fo-mentation of strikes and other internal troubles with a view to embarrassing the government and hampering the national life that the existing regime would be overthrown. Now, however, the evidence of the government contained in documents seized from imprisoned Spartacists shows that whereas sabotage and kindred weapons were probably favored by the bulk of the communists, there was another group that believed in "direct action" of the worst sort.

The murder of Government Inspector Blau in August led the government to probe even more deeply than before into the secret workings of the communist group.

Many Arrests Made.

This general investigation led to a number of arrests, including the haul at Halle, wherein about a dozen of very radical stripe were captured. It also proved to the government's satisfaction that Blau was killed by reds.

Munich continues to be a fruitful source of communist agitation. Some of the reddest of the reds have their headquarters there. From these headquarters issue secret orders which every now and then fall into government hands and prove that not only are these agitators willing to harm, and even halt, the national industrial life, but have no really sincere desire to benefit the laboring man.

Instead, it has been shown, the agitators are fattening on proletarian funds, some of which emanate directly from bolshevik Russia and others of which are collected from the "brethren" in Germany, Austria and Czecho-Slovakia.

Part of the program of these agitators is to give their course an air of respectability by recruiting "intellectuals."

Woman Dog Catcher.

Denver, Colo.—"The only woman dog catcher in the world" is the title applied to Mrs. Laura Dietrich, deputy pound mistress at the dog pound here.
Mrs. Dietrich is highly efficient in the unusual role, according to William C.
Fox, superintendent, who declared that he had misgivings at first as to the advisability of securing a woman for the position, as he thought it would be too difficult. "However, I soon discovered that dogs resist a woman much less than a man," he said. "They are handled by Mrs. Dietrich with much less trouble than by a man."

Pearls in Oysters.

Beloit, Wis.—Forrest Wilson bought a quart of oysters for 50 cents. When eating them he bit on something hard and found it to be a pearl. A few seconds later his son had a similar experience. The stones had not been cooked enough to harm them. The largest one is worth $50 and the smaller $10, making $60 in two bites.

STATE EXPERIMENT STATION TOBACCO REPORT.

The range of tobacco prices for all classes of tobacco raised in Kentucky is higher than at any time except at the opening of the market and tobacco is being brought to market in greater volume than at any time during the season. One noticeable feature, however, is taking place; the finer types of tobacco are either holding their price level or increasing in value while the poorer grades are settling to lower levels.

There is a large quantity of common types of tobacco still to be marketed and the preponderance of this type is likely to break the market sometime during the coming month.
The following is a quotation from Tobacco, an English tobacco journal:

"Despite the threat of dearer tobacco and cigarettes in the New Year, stocks were never larger, and shipments of tobacco leaf has been suspended at Liverpool owing to the enormous stocks held in the bonded warehouses. The Liverpool representative of Tobacco states that the total value of the raw material at the port reaches 18,000,000 pounds (approximately $86,400,000.) The stock there has increased from 60,- 000 to 120,000 hogsheads, and the duty on each is 150 pounds. All the bonded warehouses in London, Glasgow, and Bristol also are full."

A ROMANCE NIPPED

Romances may sometimes develop at a movie show—and sometimes they get nipped in the bud. This happened at The Alamo one night recently. THE NEWS man took a seat behind a young man who sat behind a young woman and an elderly companion who was perhaps her mother. Everything seemed to go on about normally until the young man in front suddenly kicked the foot of the young woman in front of him.

Evidently she did not resent it, and he, perhaps thoughtlessly, did not take the trouble to remove his foot. And then the girl did one of those original things so characteristic of women. She produced a handbag with a mirror attachment, and, while ostensibly powdering her already lily-white nose, she glanced in the mirror to see what the modern Romeo behind looked like.

Whether she was satisfied with the picture in the mirror could not be determined, but evidently she was, because her elderly companion, evidently or possibly her mother, getting suspicious, told the young lady to put on her hat, and they departed. Thus the romance ended.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, well known druggist of Auburn, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

When a Man's Sick.

It is when we are sick that we make the hardest call on our philosophy of life. It is the most difficult of mental feats to be resigned to physical suffering and incapacity. There have been cheerful sick men in history, like Alexander Pope, it is true, but they were and are few and far between.
Julius Caesar, for instance, proved to be a very querulous man when he was sick.

TO THE DYSPETIC.

Would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles are over, that you can eat any kind of food that you crave? Consider then the fact that Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you. There are many who have been restored to health by taking these tablets and can now eat any kind of food that they crave.

Titles Occupational.

An English newspaper suggests the use of generic names for household help, as, for instance: "Palmer" for parlor maid, "Jenny" for general "Scullery" for scullery maid, and so on.
All very well, but suppose in the first case there were three parlor maids, would it distinguish them as "Palmer," "Palmer" and "Palmer"?—Boston Transcript.

DON'T YOU FORGET IT.

Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Tablets not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They contain no pepsin or other digestive ferment but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally.

The Old Roman Household.

In the days of old Rome the culinary department of an elegant establishment boasted pans lined with silver and pails of various descriptions richly inlaid. There were egg frames that would cook twenty eggs at once, and masonry molds shaped like shells, and an infinite assortment of griddles, frying pans, cheese graters and tart dishes.
